

SCHUBERT

Winery of the year

and most auspicious wine for

Chinese New Year
2011 Year of the “Rabbit”

He also wrote the following about Schubert Wines & our Pinots...

I would go as far to say Kai Schubert and Marion Deimling make some of the most profound pinot noir on this planet from their tiny vineyards in Martinborough and the Wairarapa, literally only a cupful relative to most wineries.

There is a distinctive element of earthiness and concentration to the wines and the tannins are noticeably more chewy, or firmer throughout the whole wine and metaphorically Chambertin-like, rather than Vosne Romanee.

To read more from Curtis Marsh & The Wandering Palate please visit www.thewanderingpalate.com

