

Best of the Best

Wine Guide

Food and Beverage magazine wine expert Peter Saunders
selects his top
New Zealand
wines of 2004

Schubert Wairarapa Pinot Noir 2003

Kai Schubert's property off Dakens Road is now ten years since first plantings and the early signals of fine Pinot are being upheld. The 2003 is youthful yet shows the intensity of fruit we expect, a dark, thick colour and related texture which will unfold extremely well through 2005. Top flight wine emerging.

Proudly sponsored by

